MEET OUR FOUNDER

Llanea Reece, the school's founder and director, is a renowned figure in the field of education.

With over two decades of experience, Llanea's unwavering commitment to fostering inclusive learning environments has been a driving force behind ProEd's growth. She has successfully founded two international schools and a learning center, showcasing her unparalleled dedication to inclusivity and educational excellence.

Today, Llanea is spearheading the expansion of ProEd at NUANU, with the imminent launch of a middle school and her dream project—a Senior Secondary School extending educational opportunities up to Year 13.
